

Break-Out Session (submitted papers)
(May be included in Opening Session if time permits)

Moderator:

The training available to developing cotton farmers in South Africa—A.P.F. Cornelissen, M.S. Molope and L.G. Mabula

15-minutes

Cotton Pest and disease management initiative for improved yield and quality in the Southern African Development Community (SADC) Region-Obstacles to overcome-E. R. Van Biljon, J. Terblanche, G.C. Prinsloo, E.G. Eulitz, M.C. de Beer, L. Malinga and M.D. Mamogobo

15-minutes

Soil management practices of irrigated cotton farmers in the Ferghana Valley of Uzbekistan. K. Bronson

15-minutes

Integrating natural resource management into mainstream extension in the Australian cotton industry through partnerships. V. Chapman, S. Maas, and G. McIntyre

15-minutes

Open meeting for all Conference participants interested in supporting and promoting the Extension and Technology Transfer discipline. Discussion of ways to publicize and promote greater participation in discipline sessions at future Conferences. Discussion of a need to form a committee to maintain periodic communications with WCRC primary sponsors (i.e. ICAC, FAO) and past participants in discipline sessions. Identification of means for expanding contacts with Extension personnel worldwide.--- All Interested Conference Participants

60-minutes (if time is available during break-out session; otherwise will be scheduled as an informal meeting at some other time)

Poster Session (Submitted Abstracts)

Scenario of Bt-cotton: Its adoption, impact and challenges. R.K. Gumber, M. Singh, and P.D. Kumawat

On-farm agronomic and economic evaluation of stacked-gene cotton cultivars in the High Plains and Coastal Bend regions of Texas. R.G. Lemon, R.K. Boman, M.S. Kelly , D.D. Fromme and J.J. Pigg

Farmers participatory approach for popularizing new diploid cotton varieties and strengthening the seed chain. S.S. Patil, R.S. Patil, B.M. Khadi